

Liysa

...with a why

Inspiration with a lot of funny!

Speaker, Comic, Author

Liysa has lived her entire life in the deaf community – with two deaf parents and a deaf husband – she learned to communicate differently. Really differently. Now, she's finding the humor (and voice) in her challenges, and learning to be heard above the noise.

Join Liysa on her hilarious journey through a silent world – which sometimes is not so silent – as she uses stories, improvisation, audience participation, and tips to help give you a fresh perspective on your obstacles.

Liysa will teach you to use humor in life and in business, help you embrace diversity to form stronger teams, and teach you the art of communicating beyond words.
